

Community Service Learning Peer-to-Peer Workshop
Boston Youth Opportunity (YO!)
November 7-8, 2001

Workshop Overview

There are four learning objectives. Participants will learn how to:

- Collaborate with community-based organizations;
- Organize young adults to lead community engagement projects through leveraging resources;
- Prepare young adults for structured work environments; and
- Prepare young adults to become future leaders combining community, work and life.

Participants will develop specific action plans to use to develop long-term community service learning projects that meet the needs of their communities.
